

English Australia Journal Copy Editor: Kaylee Downing

Kaylee Downing was an enthusiastic member of the TEFL industry for almost 25 years, having worked in Asia, the UK, and Australia in a wide variety of roles such as language instructor, teacher trainer, program coordinator, university tutor in English language enhancement programs, Director of Studies, and Centre Manager. She is now lecturing in the Enabling Programs space at Griffith University, teaching aspiring students who have not gained entry to the university via traditional pathways, but she enjoys keeping her connections to the ELICOS industry through the English Australia Journal. Kaylee also has her own editing business, has qualifications in editing, and is a member of the Institute of Professional Editors (IPED).